ABOUT PROVIDENCE

Welcome to Providence, Rhode Island! Providence combines the accessibility and friendliness of a small town with the culture and sophistication of a big city. With a thriving arts community, vibrant and diverse neighborhoods, outstanding hotels, a renowned restaurant scene and so many things to do, Providence is the perfect place to visit.

FEDERAL HILL

Providence's historic Federal Hill neighborhood spans iconic Atwells Avenue and the surrounding streets. Largely settled by Italian-American immigrants in the early 1900s, Federal Hill effuses a sense of warmth and community that embraces visitors and locals alike. While the neighborhood has evolved, the influence of the Italian people and culture is ever present. When shopping or dining, take the time to talk to a shop owner or interact with a food purveyor, as they will likely share a story about the history of the store or neighborhood.

PROVIDENCE RIVER BOAT CO.

POINTS OF INTEREST

Providence, Rhode Island has so much to see & do. Listed below are some SUGGESTED attractions. For more ideas, contact the Providence Convention & Tourism Corporation at (401) 456-0200 or online at www.goprovidence.com

AREA ATTRACTIONS

ARCADE PROVIDENCE <http://arcadeprovidence.com/>

Built in 1828, Arcade Providence is the nation's oldest indoor shopping mall. Located in downtown, the Arcade features 17 unique retail shops and 3 restaurants.

BENEFIT STREET

A lot of history is crammed into this mile-long cobblestone street on the east side of Providence. In fact, Benefit Street has one of the highest concentrations of Colonial buildings in the country; notable houses include the Nightingale-Brown House, once home to one of the founders of Brown University.

ROGER WILLIAMS PARK

The park spans an impressive 435 acres of land in Providence and is covered in beautiful gardens, lakes, and greenhouses, making this one of the nicest green spots in the city. As well as the flora and sauna here, you will also find period buildings such as the original bandstand that dates from 1915 as well as the Betsy Williams Cottage that was built in 1773. For young children, the park has a carousel as well as train rides and playgrounds, so there is no chance of getting bored here. The park is also home of the Museum of Natural History and the Roger Williams Park Zoo.

THE STEPHEN HOPKINS HOUSE

Take a tour of the 1707 home of Declaration-signer Stephen Hopkins, his family and their slaves, eight rooms full of antiques, Hopkins heirlooms and 18th century atmosphere. Learn about Rhode Island's own Founding Father and his house, the city's oldest, moved twice but virtually unmodernized, where George Washington was a guest in 1776. Relax in our parterre garden designed by Alden Hopkins of Williamsburg. We're on Benefit Street between the John Brown House and Roger Williams' First Baptist Church, a block from the RISD Museum, the Athenaeum, the Brown University campus and Providence's spectacular WaterFire.
